The following describes available sections within the Subscriptions module user interface. This module is used to access and create subscription objects, fulfillment requests, and billing requests.

Directory

The Directory tab stores a list with your generated subscription objects. Each subscription provides its own status that is regulated by fulfillment requests via the corresponding section.

Furthermore, this section contains your test or preview subscriptions. The system also allows generating subscriptions manually by clicking the Create Subscription button. Refer to Subscription Creation to learn more about the manual test subscription creation.

Subscription Details

Click on a subscription object identifier to access the Subscription Details screen. As the name implies, this screen provides insights of your selected object. Note that this screen is also used to manage your subscriptions and perform various operations, such as accessing suspending subscriptions, changing the quantity of purchased items, adjusting subscription data and so on.

The screenshot shows the 'Subscription details' page in the CloudBlue interface. The page header includes the CloudBlue logo, a 'Subscriptions' dropdown menu, a 'HELP' icon, a notification bell with '21', and the user profile 'Front Street Inc. Vendor - Robert Balboa'. The main content area features a 'Subscription details' breadcrumb and an 'ACTIONS' dropdown. Below this, there are sections for 'Status' (Active), 'Subscription' (AS-3731-5839-9079), 'Request In Progress', 'Product' (Tutorial Product), and 'Marketplace' (Tutorial Marketplace). A navigation bar includes 'CONTROL PANEL', 'RESERVATION', 'PAY AS YOU GO', 'PARAMETERS', 'DETAILS', 'TIERS', 'FULFILLMENT', and 'BILLING'. A central message box contains a 'SIGN IN' button and a 'Tutorial Product Activation' section with a 'Download Now' link. The footer of the message box says 'Thank you for cooperating with Front Street Inc!'.

For more information on provided insights and available operations, refer to the Subscription Details documentation.

Fulfillment

The Fulfillment tab displays your order fulfillment requests. Each request object is used to manage its corresponding subscription on the CloudBlue Connect platform. Thus, it is important to understand the difference between request types and request statuses.

The screenshot shows the 'FULFILLMENT' tab in the CloudBlue interface. The page header includes the CloudBlue logo, a 'Subscriptions' dropdown menu, a 'HELP' icon, a notification bell, and the user profile 'Front Street Inc. Vendor - Robert Balboa'. The main content area features a 'Subscriptions' breadcrumb and tabs for 'DIRECTORY', 'FULFILLMENT', and 'BILLING'. Below this, there are sections for 'Requests from this year', 'REFRESH', '1 FILTER APPLIED', '1 SORT APPLIED', and 'COLUMNS'. A table displays fulfillment requests with columns for REQUEST, CREATED, PRODUCT, MARKET, HUB, SUBSCRI, CUSTOM, ASSIGNEE, and STATUS. The table contains three rows of data.

Refer to Fulfillment Request to learn more about such request, their types, statuses, request details. To get information on how to process your fulfillment request on the Connect platform, please refer to the Requests Management documentation.

Billing

The Billing tab stores your billing request. Click on a billing request ID to access the Billing request details screen.

The Connect platform provides the following billing request types:

- Vendor billing: These requests are generally created by the Connect platform according to the provided scheduler. Vendors can also manually create billing requests for their preview/test subscriptions.
- Provider billing: Optional requests that are generated by integrated Distributor systems. Such requests are not available for Vendors.

Use the Billing request details screen to examine the billing period, information on purchased reservation/pay-as-you-go items, parameters data, request details, tier account data, billing attributes, and other general request information.
